

CCGC

CONTINENTAL CONSULTING
GROUP CORPORATION

DOUG HOOKS

Vice President
Aviation Strategy

hooks@ccgc.us
910.691.3831

Doug Hooks joined Continental Consulting Group Corporation (CCGC) in 2019. His Army career spanned 26 years including 32 months as a Battalion Commander with deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan. Doug is an exceptional leader and seasoned officer with assignments on multiple strategic level staffs to include Combined Forces Land Component Command, Eighth Army, Department of the Army DCS G-3 and DCS G-4.

Navigating Your Path to Government Business

Education & Experience Highlights:

CCGC, 2019-Present

Vice President, Aviation Strategy

- Develops and executes aviation business development strategies for clients, primarily in the Fort Rucker, Huntsville, Austin, Tampa and Orlando communities
- Represents clients interests in operational, maintenance and services areas

North American Surveillance Systems (NASS)/ MAG Aerospace, 2018-2019

- Established operations for NASS in Huntsville, AL; integrated into the Huntsville and Redstone Community which aided in the merger under MAG Aerospace
- Served as Director for Aviation Support Division/Huntsville Operations for MAG managing multiple Aviation programs supporting operations in Afghanistan

US Army, Retired, Colonel, 1992-2018

- Commanded as an Aviation Support Battalion Commander in Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom
- Five years of strategic aviation level experience working in the Pentagon; spent final two years as the Systems Division Chief in DAMO-AV and served as the Army Tri-Chair representative for Future Vertical Lift

Education

- University of North Georgia 1992, Bachelor's of Science
- Embry Riddle University 2014, Master's of Science, Leadership
- Lean Six Sigma Black Belt 2014