

CCGC

CONTINENTAL CONSULTING
GROUP CORPORATION

ALAN ROBERSON

President

roberson@ccgc.us
703.850.1846

Alan Roberson joined Continental Consulting Group Corporation (CCGC) in 2007. He has over 30 years of military and government service culminating in the development of international, strategic initiatives. Alan enables the team at CCGC to broaden their services into foreign markets and relationships. In addition, he helps to match corporate, strategic capabilities to US Government requirements.

Navigating Your Path to Government Business

Education & Experience Highlights:

CCGC, 2007-Present
President

- Supports client interests primarily in the Pentagon and the rest of the NCR
- Understands and connects clients to international governments or industries
- Preps “battlefield” for clients to increase value between industry and government

National Defense University 2005-2007
Senior Director of Strategic Initiatives

- Established global relationships with military educational institutions
- Enhanced strategic and operational capabilities of countries to respond to US security requirements

US Army, Retired, Colonel, 1976-2005

- Commanded 82nd Combat Aviation Brigade
- Commanded 101st Cavalry Squadron
- Combat experience in OEF, Afghanistan as the Chief of Staff
 - Coalition Task Joint Force-82, coordinating Special Forces operations and 18 international coalition military organizations

Appalachian State University 1976, Bachelor’s of Science, Business Admin

Webster University 1986, Masters of Science in Business and Marketing

Army War College 1997