

CCGC

CONTINENTAL CONSULTING
GROUP CORPORATION

BOBBY SEIGLE

Director Operations

seiglejr@ccgc.us
703.980.7349

Bobby Seigle joined Continental Consulting Group Corporation (CCGC) in 2009 after spending the previous six years as a college basketball coach. He has dedicated his time at CCGC to developing relationships in the National Capital Region by opening doors for clients throughout the US Government and Federal Agencies outside the Army Aviation niche. Bobby supports all of CCGC's contracts and operations activities.

Navigating Your Path to Government Business

Education & Experience Highlights:

CCGC, 2009-Present
Director, Operations

- Coordinates CCGC's Washington DC activities, including hosting clients' strategy sessions and scheduling client visits to areas outside the Pentagon (example: Defense Security Cooperation Agency – DSCA)
- Assists CCGC leadership with support staff (Pentagon, Capitol Hill)
- Supports DC and Huntsville offices with administrative duties, scheduling obligations and contractual negotiations

Director of Basketball Operations, University of New Orleans, 2007-2009

- Coordinated practices, practice schedules, film exchange, film study, game day events and procedures, team travel and on-campus recruiting visits
- Served as liaison between University's administration and the basketball program; also served as academic liaison between athletes and academic advisors
- Managed the budget, planning and building of the new men's basketball locker room at Lakefront Arena after completed repairs from Hurricane Katrina

Graduate Assistant, Texas Tech University, 2005-2007

- Supported basketball staff and Head Coach Bob Knight for pre-practice workouts, practices, game day operations and film exchange

University of South Carolina 2005, Bachelor's of Arts, English with Honors
Texas Tech University 2007, Master's of Business Administration